

Things I need to pack for my exciting camp adventure.

Four changes of play clothes

Shirts with no offensive writing or symbols
Shorts that reach the knee, capris, or gauchos
Underclothes
Socks
Tennis shoes

Four changes of casual church clothes

Dresses or skirts for girls
Casual dress pants or jeans for boys
Casual dress shirts—No t-shirts please
Underclothes
Socks if necessary
Shoes

In cabin supplies

Pajamas (nights can get cool)
Robe for traveling to and from the shower and the pool
House shoes, if desired

Pool and Waterslide supplies

A one piece bathing suit—be modest in your choice
Cover up this can be your bathrobe) a long t-shirt and long towel are also appropriate.
Shoes to wear going to and from the pool.

Sunscreen

Pool Toys

Personal items

Hairbrush

Shampoo/Conditioner

Hair accessories if needed

Toothbrush

Toothpaste

Soap

Bug Repellent

Contact Supplies—Case, Solution Glasses

Medications, to be turned in to the medication counselor

Activities Equipment

Any music or instrument you will use to bless us with your talents in the evening service.

Ball glove, bat, and cleats

Please turn to the back

Basic Necessities

Fitted/Flat sheets

Blanket or Sleeping Bag

Pillow/Pillowcase

Towels for five days

Washcloths

Spending Money— We do have a Concession Stand with snacks. $10-$15 should be sufficient.

Light Jacket—sometimes the nights are cold

Rain Jacket or Umbrella

Don't Leave Home Without Your Bible